

My family doctor had many tests done on me to try to diagnose my dizziness/vertigo I was suffering from. Nothing was found, so he referred me to BalanceMD and after ten minutes of testing, it was determined crystals had broken loose from where they belonged and needed to have a simple treatment to correct the problem. I walked out of the office with my dizziness gone!

In our eyes it was a miracle. I have recommended your practice to everyone I talk to.

Linda Kline